The Society for the Analysis of African American Public Health Issues (SAAPHI) is soliciting abstracts for the 2019 annual scientific symposium and poster session to be held in Philadelphia, PA on Saturday, November 2, 2019. The overarching theme of this year’s pre-conference meeting is “400 Years of Inequality: Social Justice Through Research, Policy & Practice.”

Abstracts reflecting new and innovative information in any area of public health disproportionately impacting members of the African diaspora (e.g., mental health and well-being, chronic disease, infectious disease) will be reviewed, themes include but are not limited to:

- Intersection of Racism, Classism, Gender Discrimination and Social Determinants of Health and Equity
- Policy Strategies that Address Root Causes of Health Inequities
- Discrimination and Implicit Bias within Health Systems
- Intersection of Research, Policy and Social Determinants of Health and Equity
- Strengthening Academic-Community Partnerships to Advance Health Equity
- Access to Quality Care (Traditional, Integrative and Complementary)
- Mobilizing Data and Research for Action and Advocacy
- Trauma-Informed Practice
